USA Market: Volatility Trading Examples

By Jim Berg and John Atkinson

In our 'Investing & Online Trading' Newsletter, we currently feature those ASX and USA stocks which have recently given 'JB Alert Signals', according to Jim Berg's documented and tested Trading Rules.

Today, we also re-introduce this new section to show Jim's analysis of USA example trades.

The principles Jim teaches can be applied to Markets around the world. Some Members may not be currently trading the US Markets. However, the aim of this new series is to show you more examples on how Jim:

- Analyses his entries
- Sets his Stops and manages his positions and
- Exits the notional trades one by one – all using current or recent 'live' examples

so you can use what you learn and apply it not only to the USA, but also to the ASX and other Markets.
