2) Trading Academy: For Beginners through to Experienced

The following is a recent Q&A:

Q: "Can you provide details of the format for the weekend workshop with Jim in May?"

A: Jim's Trading Academy is our major event for 2015. It will be held at the Outrigger Twin Towns Resort at Coolangatta, very close to the Gold Coast Airport.

On the evening of Friday 1 May, from 6pm we start with a 2 hour session on 'Introduction to the Market and Jim Berg's approach'. This will be closely followed by a 'Meet and Greet Reception' with drinks and canapés - to give you an opportunity to meet us and network with fellow traders and investors.

On Saturday 2 May, Jim will explain, step-by-step, how to use his 'Weight-of Evidence' strategies and JB Volatility Indicators.

Attendees will be able to reinforce their education through the use of hands-on tutorial exercises on paper. There will also be sessions dedicated to the vital topic of 'Money and Risk Management' and on 'How to Write Your Own Trading Plan'.

From 5 to 6 pm, Dean Smith from AG Capital Markets will detail how to physically place trades. This will be followed by a networking dinner on Saturday night, from 7pm.

On Sunday 3 May, those who have brought laptops will then be invited by Jim Berg to participate in more of his hands-on 'Learn-by-Doing' exercises, this time on their laptops.

Those who do not bring laptops will not miss out, as they can sit with those who do, watch and learn too.

Jim always thrives on questions, so he actively encourages questions throughout the day. No matter whether you are a complete beginner or a seasoned trader/investor, our aim is that you go home with all your questions answered and will have the knowledge, skills, tools and confidence to move on to your next level.

As an attendee at Jim Berg's 2015 Trading Academy, you also receive:
