Your Financial Independence is at the Heart of Everything We Teach

Your Free Wrap today is based on extracts from the latest Edition 571 of Jim Berg's 'Investing & Online Trading' Stock Report

1) 24 New Entry Signals in Only 2 weeks!

One day after markets fell following the Brexit decision, in Edition 569 or our mentoring-style 'Investing & Online Trading Report' 2 weeks ago we wrote;

' Every month since July 2015 we have published Jim Berg's monthly 'Momentum Picks' Lists, in our weekly Report with the intention of helping Report Members find a way to "swim upstream against an outgoing tide", without being smacked in the face by too many "....dead fish coming in the opposite direction...." (see Page 4 of this week's Edition 571 for Jim's new List for July)

As the initial results were favourable, we subsequently began to introduce some of these into Jim's Australian Signals Services as 'live' additional research. (To download a summary review on recent performance progress in Jim's Investing Signals, Click Here ==>)

We recall after the 9/11 attacks, USA markets were closed for a few days, then when they re-opened stock prices fell hard, but rebounded in a V shaped recovery pattern strongly very soon after.

We cannot predict what will happen this time - what we can say is what we will do with the Research Signals which we currently have open in Jim's Australian Signals Services.

1. We will not pre-empt or forecast what may or may not happen or exit prematurely. Rather:
2. We will notify Trading Signals Members if Trading Signals trigger their Initial, Adjusted or Trailing Stop after the Close.
3. We will notify Investing Signals Members if any Investing Signals trigger their weekly Initial or weekly Trailing Stop at the end of any week, or if an Emergency Stop is triggered on any day meanwhile."

..... After the market has settled down from any extreme volatility from Brexit - Jim and his team will then look for new re-entry signals later to add to Jim's Research Signals.

Right now there are several shares which have been rising steadily for months but which have not corrected/retraced to give an entry.

That's why, in addition to using Jim's 'Momentum Pick's Lists, we will also search the market to look for Companies to add to Jim's Australian Trading & Investing Signals Service which:

1. Are in smooth rising trends
2. Have corrected due to Brexit and then
3. Provide a Re-entry Signal using Jim's entry Rules, as documented in this Report, Jim's 12 new E-Classes and our other resources.

Again, extra Caution is needed to swim against the tide and extra discipline is also required to:

- 1) Take action when stops are triggered and
- 2) Stay calm while others are in a 'flap'

We have also flagged in recent weeks; "Australian Members should also bear in mind that traditionally in June the XJO often has a downward bias due to some traders/ investors carrying out end of financial year portfolio balancing, by selling poor performers to offset realised profits. This is often followed by a July rally."

Saturday 9 July: Latest update*:

1. Markets did in fact rebound in a V-shape, similar to the pattern observed after 9/11. In our 'Last Word' article today, we show that on Friday 8 July, the S&P500 closed within 1 point of its all-time High. (Click here to order this week's Single Edition of our Report for the full analysis and Jim Berg's latest view of the USA and Australian markets)

2. Since Monday 27 June, we have now posted for Signals Members:

- a) 24 new Entry Signals for our Research Trading Signals
- b) 24 new Entry Signals for our Research Investing Signals

This marks a record number of new entries over 2 weeks since we started the Signals Service.

3 Entry Signals were subsequently cancelled as they ran too fast in the next few days and continually traded above our maximum 'no-chase' entry price.
